

Imamiyyah Youth Leader

About Imamiyyah Council

Majlis e Ulema Shia Europe founded over 25 years ago as an organisation of Shia Scholars, under this highly respectable organisation, is Imamiyyah Council, This has been specifically designed to bring together all the Shia communities from across UK & Europe, under one umbrella organisation led by respected Ulema, enabling the community to work together on wide ranging community improvement initiatives.

Job Objective

The youth of any community are of utmost importance, we have seen within our communities that the youth are sidelined, and not being sufficiently catered for at their individual centre level.

MUS have had some success in this area already, for instance Camp Fatimiyyah, which started 7 years ago, and is the first, and most established Shia youth camp in the UK, although this is clearly not enough as it's only done once a year.

MUS has commenced working on the challenge of regular youth engagement, however it is just the beginning.

This is a leadership role, created for someone to take accountability of creating and rolling out a youth programme for Shia Islamic centres across the UK, the holder of this role will need to be charismatic, a positive role model for his fellow youth and highly driven.
